

Chris Cannon

Qualifications Summary

Chris brings over a decade of experience in the mission-driven sector, including his early experience as an Executive Director of a growing nonprofit in Ghana, West Africa. This pivotal experience helped shape both his educational and professional aspirations, eventually leading him to a career in executive recruiting and nonprofit consulting as well as board and volunteer service.

Professional History

Valtas Group	Consultant	2022 – Present
Nonprofit Professionals Advisory Group	Senior Associate	2018 – 2022
Lenati (ProKarma)	Recruiting Manager – Contractor	2018
Landesa	Recruiting Consultant	2017
Waldron	Recruiting Manager, Exec. Search	2015 – 2017
Global Visionaries	Operations Manager	2014 – 2015
Empower Playgrounds	Executive Director	2010 – 2014

Valtas Executive Searches

- Hepatitis Education Project, Executive Director, 2023
- Childhaven, CEO, 2023
- King County Sexual Assault Resource Center, CEO, 2023
- Seattle Aquarium, Campaign Manager, 2022
- Seattle Aquarium, Senior Communications Manager, 2022
- Seattle Aquarium, Senior Marketing Manager, 2022
- Seattle Aquarium, Director of Individual Giving, 2022
- Seattle Aquarium, Senior Director of People & Culture, 2022
- Childhaven, CPO, 2022
- Childhaven, Therapeutic Early Learning Program Director, 2022
- Childhaven, Director of Workforce Development, 2022

Licenses / Education

- Master of Public Administration, Brigham Young University, UT