

James H. Goddard

Qualifications Summary

Jim has been a C-suite leader for over 40 years, exclusively in nonprofit organizations whose missions center on healthcare and health screening, health and informal science education, health research, and affordable housing.

Professional History

Valtas Group	Consultant	2023 – Present
Senior Housing Options, Inc.	CEO	2017 – 2022
9Health Fair	President & CEO	2006 – 2016
Arthritis Foundation, Rocky Mtn Chapter	President & CEO	2001 – 2006
Denver Museum of Nature & Science	Dir. of Education/Project Director – Hall of Life Health Ed Center	1986 – 2001
Legacy Health Systems – Mount Hood Medical Center/Holladay Park Medical Center	Assistant Administrator & Temporary Acting Administrator	1981 – 1986

Accomplishments

- Developed new diverse staff team and guided redevelopment and expansion of affordable apartments for low-income seniors in three locations in Colorado.
- Guided the conception and launching of new health screenings and online results and expanded outreach to new health-disparate populations through facilitation of over 130 groups of volunteers across Colorado.
- Orchestrated appeals and cultivated individual, foundation and corporate gifts of up to $1 million for programs, research, and capital projects.
- Restructured a Board of Directors and Staff to revive fundraising and program strategies to achieve a level of excess financial reserves in a federated research funding organization.
- Directed all phases of development of capital projects of over $15 million, including a new 108 hospital campus and a 10,000 square foot interactive health education center.
- Led the transformation of financial management and funding and development of a new publication as Acting Executive Director and Board Member of a wildlife conservation education and advocacy organization.

Licenses / Education

- Master of Healthcare Administration – University of Minnesota
- Low Income Housing Tax Credit Property Compliance Certification